In the first place it will be applied in repayment of the expenses of the deceased's funeral, if such expenses have not been defrayed out of funds belonging to his estate; and in the second place it will be applied in satisfaction of the claim, if any, of the guardians of the poor (or, in Scotland, of the local authority charged with the relief of the poor) on account of any expenses incurred by them in respect of his maintenance or relief, to the extent of one year's arrears preceding the date of death, or, if he was a lunatic, in satisfaction of the claim, if any, of the guardians or local authority or institution or person that maintained him for the expenses of his maintenance or incidental expenses, to the extent of six years arrears preceding the date of death. - (2.) The sick-bed expenses of the deceased if not defrayed by the guardians or local authority (or, in the case of a pauper lunatic in Ireland, by the asylum) or any debts of the pensioner that may be claimed, may be paid out of the sum due to him, provided in either case that the written consent or request of any one of the persons beneficially entitled to the personal estate of the deceased as mentioned in sub-paragraph (3) is received.

- (4.) In the case of its appearing that the deceased pensioner was of illegitimate birth, or that he leaves illegitimate children, then, provided that he leaves no widow or legitimate children, and that he died intestate, the case will be referred to the chief accountant for his decision as to the disposal of the money under the regulations made by the Secretary of State in virtue of Section 4 of the Pensions and Yeomanry Pay Act, 1884.

OSBORNE, ISLE OF WIGHT.

Convalescent Home for Officers of the Navy and Army presented to the Nation by His Majesty the King.

Osborne is open for the reception of convalescent officers of the Navy and Army. Officers will be received at Osborne on the recommendation of the Director-General of the Medical Department of their respective Services, to whom all applications for admission should be addressed.

As regards the Army, recommendations for admission or applications from officers themselves, whether on the home or foreign establishment, should be sent direct to the Director-General, Army Medical Service, War Office, Whitehall, S.W. A medical statement of the case should be enclosed.

The accommodation at Osborne, which will be divided equally between the two Services, will provide for 43 officers, 5 of whom may be accompanied by their wives. Children will not be allowed to live in Osborne.

The entire daily stoppage to be paid will be 2s. 6d. per diem for each officer or his wife.

Medical attendance is free; but in certain cases requiring massage, special nursing, or other special measures, a charge will be made to cover the cost.

The duration of the stay of officers at Osborne will be determined by the House Governor and Medical Superintendent and the Consultant on duty for the month, subject to the approval of the Director-General, Army Medical Service.

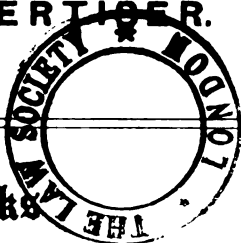

Retired officers of the Navy and Army are admitted into Osborne only under the following conditions:—

- a. If there is a vacant room at Osborne and there is no pressure for admission of officers on the Active List.
- b. That the disease or injury from which the officer is suffering is "directly attributable to the Service."
- c. That the officer has retired from the Service within five years from the date of the application for admission.
- d. That the Director-General of the Service concerned is the sole judge of the fitness of the case (medically) for admission.

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, K.G., &c., &c.
H.R.H. THE DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, E.W.; by the Secretary, Colonel E. L. F. Jennings, M.V.O., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Superintendent Miss S. Anderson, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

DE ROS, Lieut.-General,
Chairman of Committee.

MILITARY WIDOWS' FUND, BRITISH SERVICE

(Late Queen's Military Widows' Fund.)

The Military Widows' Fund, British Service, was established in 1820 to alleviate the distress of families of officers of the British Service and to enable them to return to England without unnecessary delay. Whenever an officer of the British Service, who is a subscriber to this Fund, dies, his family receive at once, the following assistance, namely:—Six months maintenance allowance ranging from Rs. 2,400/ to Rs. 3,600/, according to rate subscribed, plus Rs. 1,500/ for passage for the widow, plus Rs. 500/ or Rs. 300/ for passage for each child, according to whether it is over or under 12 years of age. These benefits are secured by a small subscription of Rs. 4, 3, or 2 per mensem, which is regulated by the amount of pay an officer draws. An officer immediately on becoming a subscriber, secures at once for his wife and children quite irrespective of length of service in India, the full benefits of the Fund in case of his death.

In 1902 the sum of Rs. 31,200/ was paid in awards to families of deceased subscribers; and the total amount paid since the establishment of the Fund in 1820 exceeds Rs. 22,00,000/.

Copies of the Regulations of the Fund can be obtained from the Honorary Secretary at Simla.
